“ We were sadden to hear about the passing of Nacho. He was a friend and we always enjoyed seeing him and talking, weather it was at Parkside or the Oak Park Y. We will miss him. Our thoughts are with his family.

“ I was so sorry to hear of Nacho's passing. During the 25 years I worked with him at ASC he was a fun, instructive and sometimes mischievous co-worker and someone I considered a friend. He will be sorely missed by all who knew him. My husband, Barry, fondly remembers bowling with Nacho, especially the times with the two of them and Randy Scott. Sending prayers to all of Nacho's loved ones and a virtual "hug". Debbie Decker
